Optum® Ireland is a part of UnitedHealth Group.

The ATU Health Care Scholarship Program is funded by the not-for-profit United Health Foundation established by UnitedHealth Group to enhance the performance of the health system and improve the overall health and well-being of the people we are privileged to serve and their communities.

The ATU Health Care Scholarship Program aims to invest in a 21st century health workforce that meets the needs of tomorrow and promote diversity in higher education by supporting young people from less advantaged and non-traditional backgrounds. The program will be delivered by Optum Ireland in partnership with Atlantic Technological University (ATU).

- The ATU Health Care Scholarship Program provides three scholarships to ATU Donegal, two scholarships to ATU Sligo / ATU Galway-Mayo. The value of each award is €12,000.
- Applicants must meet the eligibility criteria and have applied for an undergraduate program on the designated course list set out below.
- The fund is administered by the academic institution to the Scholar each year subject to the scholar being in good academic standing.
- A scanned copy, or photo of the completed and signed application form and reference must be completed and sent to nodlaig.brolly@optum.com before: 5 p.m. on Friday, 19 April 2024.

Terms and conditions | Téarmaí agus Coinníollacha

- The Selection Panel will consider the application for, reference and supporting documentation to determine who will be awarded a Scholarship. Evaluation of applications will be on this basis of academic achievement, demonstration of impact on studies, future career potential and personal and family circumstances. Applicants who demonstrate greater financial need will be prioritised in the case of multiple applications of the same standard. The Selection Panel's decision is final. Successful applicants will be notified as soon as possible after the issue of the Leaving Certificate Results.
- Any offer of a Scholarship is dependent upon information being truthful and accurate and upon the applicant fulfilling all of the conditions of the Scholarship. The right to withdraw an offer is maintained in the event of any error or omission whatsoever in the information provided by or on behalf of the applicant. The Scholar will be given fourteen (14) days' notice in writing that the offer is being withdrawn.
- Scholarships will only be awarded to applicants who have been formally offered a place on a designated course by the Institution on the basis of Leaving Cert results.
- Scholarships will not be awarded, and funds will not be processed unless evidence of an exemption from paying the Leaving Certificate Examination Fee and/or a letter of formal approval from Student Universal Support Ireland ("SUSI") verifying the applicant's entitlement to any form of a Maintenance Grant and and/or Tuition Fee Grant is submitted to the Selection Panel.
- Detailed feedback is not available in the case of an unsuccessful application.
- Each Scholarship is for the named person on the application only.
- Successful applicants will not be permitted to hold or receive any other scholarship such as the All-Ireland/ Naughton/ Ernst Walton/ 1916 Bursary and may therefore have to elect which scholarship to receive.
- Depending on the designated course of study, the Institution may retain the Scholarship fund to cover the cost of the tuition fees and the balance will be processed to the Scholar as per the specified schedule following registration of the Scholar with the Institution. In the event that the tuition fees are provided for due to the nre or the course, the Institution will process the entire fund to the Scholar in accordance with the schedule of payments.
- The Scholar recipient will be notified of the schedule of payments by the Foundation or its representative or the Institution.
- Scholarships will be renewed each year subject to the scholar being in good academic standing. Scholars will be expected to adhere to the regulations of the Institution and to undergo every term examination or any other examination determined by the authorities of the Institution determined by the authorities of such Institution for their course.
- The Scholar must commence his or her programme of study in the academic year noted in the Scholarship award. The Scholar must successfully complete their programme of study within the standard timeframe. The duration of the Scholarship will be clearly stated upon confirmation of award and will not be extendable to cover any deferred or repeated year unless the Foundation elects in its sole discretion to extend the Scholarship period. Authorised postponements will be considered only in exceptional circumstances, and for a valid reason. In the event that no reasons are provided, it will remain within the discretion of the Foundation to withdraw the Scholarship.
- The Selection Panel reserves the right to award a Scholarship to an applicant who fails to provide evidence of an exemption from paying the Leaving Certificate Examination Fee and/or a letter of formal approval from SUSI verifying the applicant's entitlement to any form of a Maintenance Grant and/or Tuition Fee Grant in circumstances where the Selection Panel is satisfied that the applicant has demonstrated sufficient hardship (physical/emotional/social/cultural) in accessing or maintaining a third-level course of study.

Terms and conditions | Téarmaí agus Coinníollacha

- Payment of Scholarships will be administered by the Institution on proof of registration with the Institution on a designated course.
- The Scholarship will be processed to the Scholar as per the specified schedule following registration of the Scholar with the Institution.
- The Scholar will be expected to attend a Scholarship Awards Ceremony (date to be agreed by all parties) to be formally presented with the award. The Scholar may also be required to attend an awards ceremony in the Institution and the Institution will invite a representative from the Foundation to attend.
- The Scholar will be expected to take part in the promotion of the Scholarship and may be asked for a photograph and personal statement for use in promotional material. For purposes of these Terms and Conditions, the "Data Protection Legislation" means any and all laws relating to data protection, the processing of personal data, privacy and/or electronic communications in force from time in Ireland, as applicable, including Regulation (EU) 2016/679 ("General Data Protection Regulation" or "GDPR") and any legislation implementing or revising such legislation in applicable EU member states, including the Irish Data Protection Act 2018.

Privacy notice | Fógra Príobháideachais

United Health Foundation (the “Foundation”) and Optum Services (Ireland) Limited (“Optum”) observe principles of good information handling and take all reasonable care when handling “personal data” - information that identifies, or is capable of identifying individuals. The Foundation and Optum process personal data in accordance with applicable data protection laws. Both the Foundation and Optum are controllers of personal data processed in administering the United Health Foundation Scholarship (the “Scholarship”).

The Foundation and Optum may collect the following information from you for the purpose of administering the Scholarship: name, course, student ID number, institution, details of educational and personal background, personal statement, home address, phone number, email address, personal and academic references, academic records, photographs and video images. Special categories of personal data may be collected by us if included in the details of educational and personal background.

The Foundation and Optum’s legal bases to use and process your personal data include:

- The performance of a contract with you and/or the academic institution for your benefit in obtaining the Scholarship;
- Your consent, where applicable, which you may subsequently withdraw at any time by contacting us through the details provided below, without affecting the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal;
- The Foundation and/or Optum’s legitimate interests to establish and manage the Scholarship including promoting the Scholarship; and
- The Foundation and/or Optum’s legal obligation to comply with applicable laws and regulations.

The Foundation and Optum will only retain personal data about you that is necessary for the purposes described above and will take all reasonable steps to ensure that it is kept up-to-date and accurate. From time to time we may ask you to review and update the personal data we hold.

We will need to share your personal data with the academic institution and third-party vendors for certain services. We will only do so when necessary for legitimate purposes such as the administration of the Scholarship and promoting the Scholarship. The academic institution will process your personal data in accordance with its own privacy policy.

You acknowledge that the Foundation is a non-profit organisation based in the United States and, as such, we may need to transfer your personal information outside the European Economic Area (EEA). By agreeing to this Privacy Notice, you are consenting to such transfer.

You are entitled to request access to, rectification or erasure of your personal data or restriction of processing or to object to processing of such data and other rights in accordance with applicable law. Requests should be submitted to the Foundation through uhg_privacy_office@uhg.com and to Optum through information_governance@optum.com. We will provide you with a response in accordance with applicable data protection law. The Foundation and / or Optum may refuse to provide such information in limited circumstances under applicable law.

If, having considered your personal data that we hold, you find that it is inaccurate or you otherwise have any concerns, you may request that your information be amended, erased or restricted in accordance with applicable requirements. You may contact the Foundation through uhg_privacy_office@uhg.com or Optum through information_governance@optum.com at any time about concerns you may have regarding the processing of your personal data. You also have the right to lodge a complaint before the relevant data privacy authority should we violate applicable data privacy laws(s) in our processing of your personal data.

We request that you provide us with accurate and up-to-date personal data. Should you make a request to access the information we hold about you, we may require that you provide us with further information so that we can be satisfied of your identity, subject to any applicable local restrictions.

Privacy notice | Fógra Príobháideachais

The Foundation and Optum take appropriate physical, technical and organisational security measures to guard against unauthorised or unlawful access and processing of your personal data, and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, your personal data, and to ensure that your personal data is stored lawfully and securely. Examples of our security measures include:

- Foundation and Optum employees who have access to personal data are made aware of their obligations to protect that information;
- Personal data in paper form is kept in filing cabinets that are only accessible by authorised Foundation or Optum employees on a need-to-know basis;
- Personal data stored electronically is only accessible by authorised personnel; and
- Printed material displaying personal data is disposed of securely, for example, by shredding.

The Foundation and Optum may revise this Privacy Notice and the way in which it processes your personal data from time to time. You will be notified of any significant changes.
